"[The] Cross is the salvation of the Church; the Cross is the boast of those who hope in it; the Cross is reconciliation of enemies to God and conversion of sinners to Christ. For through the Cross we have been delivered from enmity, and through the Cross we have been joined in friendship to God. Through the Cross we have been freed from the tyranny of the devil, and through the Cross we have been delivered from death and destruction."

-- Saint John Chrysostom, preaching about the Cross of Our Lord Jesus Christ

NEWS AND NOTES

Fr. John away this week on Vacation

Dear Members and Friends of the Terryville (CT) Parish:

Glory to Jesus Christ!

I will be on vacation from Sunday afternoon, September 19, through to Saturday afternoon, September 25. Macrina and I are planning to go to Maine for those days, to spend time in Winter Harbor and Bar Harbor, and in Acadia National Park. (This is the second half of our "split" two-week vacation this year...the first half took place in August.)

During my absence, in the case of a true pastoral emergency requiring the ministry of a priest, please contact Fr. David Koles at 860-573-0013. (Alternatively, you may also contact any priest of one of the parishes of the Diocese of New England's Connecticut Deanery. You may also reach out to our parish deacon, Protodeacon Paul Nimchek at 860-489-3220.)

With love in Christ,

Fr. John H.

Annual NOCC Fundraiser

Dear Members and Friends of Saints Cyril and Methodius Orthodox Church, Terryville (CT):

Glory to Jesus Christ!

Every year, in September, our fellow parishioner Jack Kriniske participates in fundraising efforts for the National Ovarian Cancer Coalition (NOCC – www.ovarian.org). NOCC is an organization dedicated to the goal of combating ovarian cancer. Jack's beloved wife, Donna, succumbed to ovarian cancer some years ago, after a long and brave fight against the disease. Memory Eternal!

In past years, Jack's September initiative on behalf of NOCC included participation in memorial walks held to commemorate victims of ovarian cancer. This year, however, on account of a number of factors, no such walk will be held.

Nevertheless, Jack has set up a portal on the NOCC website, through which donations can be made in memory of Donna Kriniske. That portal can be accessed at this "click-able" link:

<https://events.ovarian.org/fundraise/jack2021>

Jack thanks all those who have already or will in the future donate to NOCC in memory of Donna. If you have any questions or wish to donate in a way other than by using the online portal, please contact Jack directly. Thank you.

With love in Christ,

Fr. John H.

Archpriest John Hopko, Pastor

Readings from Holy Scripture

Scripture Readings for the 13th Sunday after Pentecost

The Reading from the First Epistle of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Corinthians (1 Cor. 16:13-24)

Brothers and Sisters: Be watchful, stand firm in your faith, be courageous, be strong. Let all that you do be done in love. Now, brethren, you know that the household of Stephanas were the first converts in Achaia, and they have devoted themselves to the service of the saints; I urge you to be subject to such men and to every fellow worker and laborer. I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus, because they have made up for your absence; for they refreshed my spirit as well as yours. Give recognition to such men. The churches of Asia send greetings. Aquila and Prisca, together with the church in their house, send you hearty greetings in the Lord. All the brethren send greetings. Greet one another with a holy kiss. I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. If any one has no love for the Lord, let him be accursed. Our Lord, come! The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you. My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

The Reading from the Gospel according to St. Matthew (Matt. 21:33-42)

The Lord spoke this parable: "There was a householder who planted a vineyard, and set a hedge around it, and dug a wine press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to tenants, and went into another country. When the season of fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants, to get his fruit; and the tenants took his servants and beat one, killed another, and stoned another. Again he sent other servants, more than the first; and they did the same to them. Afterward he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.' But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him and have his inheritance.' And they took him and cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. When therefore the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?" They said to him, "He will put those wretches to a miserable death, and let out the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the fruits in their seasons." Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the scriptures: 'The very stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner; this was the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes'?"

Scripture Readings for the 14th Sunday after Pentecost

The Reading from the Second Epistle of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Corinthians (2 Cor. 1:21-2:4)

Brothers and Sisters: It is God who establishes us with you in Christ, and has commissioned us; he has put his seal upon us and given us his Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee. But I call God to witness against me—it was to spare you that I refrained from coming to Corinth. Not that we lord it over your faith; we work with you for your joy, for you stand firm in your faith. For I made up my mind not to make you another painful visit. For if I cause you pain, who is there to make me glad but the one whom I have pained? And I wrote as I did, so that when I came I might not suffer pain from those who should have made me rejoice, for I felt sure of all of you, that my joy would be the joy of you all. For I wrote you out of much affliction and anguish of heart and with many tears, not to cause you pain but to let you know the abundant love that I have for you.

The Reading from the Gospel according to St. Luke (Luke 5:1-11)

At that time, Jesus was standing by the lake of Gennesaret. And he saw two boats by the lake; but the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. Getting into one of the boats, which was Simon's, Jesus asked him to put out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the people from the boat. And when Jesus had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch." And Simon answered, "Master, we toiled all night and took nothing! But at your word I will let down the nets." And when they had done this, they enclosed a great shoal of fish; and as their nets were breaking, they beckoned to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord." For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the catch of fish which they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; henceforth you will be catching men." And when they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed him.
